On the 14th inst. three children o Frenchman named Joseph Brotte, in he town of Willow Creek, on Lake Huron, strayed from their father's shanty into the surrounding woods. They were two girls of eight and six years respectively, and a boy of four. It was two nights, one whole day, and part of two others, before they were found, and then in a lumber shanty in the woods, in an exhausted condition. The little boy had been for some time senseless and speechless, and his little sisters had lain him out, composing his limbs, supposing him dead. He was restored to partial consciousness, but only to die in his mother's arms. The other two were restored without

Mr. Brotte had just moved upon a new lot of landr from Canada. The children went into the woods to hunt of their violence, show that they are wintergreens. A dog, which was taken with a party of men in search of them, was the first to discover them.

No News From the Plains. It is high time that we had another mail from the far West, telling us of and the Soldiers. Everybody is anxious to know what has become of the Utah expedicion. The Mo. Republican of Saturday, says:

The mail has, of course, been stopped by Brigham Young, as the conthe state of affairs between the Saints actors and carriers were Mormons but we have supposed that weekly ex-presses, at least, would be dispatched, to keep the Government advised of the position of the troops, and the possi-ble chance of getting into Great Salt Lake this winter. In the absence of these dispatches, a good deal of solic-itude must be felt for the safety of those engaged in the campaign.

Indian Slaves.

We are informed by a gentleman just from Nebraska, that some Indians are now held in slavery by a citizen of that place. The holder of them is rethen human mind; gicom is akin to cently from Utah, where he purchased moroseness, and moroseness is wick-them from the Mormons, where Indian edness. slavery is one of the adjuncts of the playery is one of the adjuncts of the plurality wife system, and he now conductably wife system, and he now conductably wife system, and he now conductably wife system, and he now conductable wife should be careful how he spits Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere conformity with the Dred Scott decision."—[Missouri Democrat, 5th inst.
